the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors; and after due deliberation, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefore, it is hereby

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that:

1. The Motion is GRANTED to the extent set forth herein.
2. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to maintain and continue to make all postpetition payments (including postpetition fees and premiums) with respect to the Insurance Policies and the Premium Finance Agreement on an uninterrupted basis.
3. Other than with respect to the Travelers Note, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay any prepetition premiums and deductibles related to the Insurance Policies and/or the Premium Financing Arrangements, in an amount up to a maximum of $15,000, to the extent that the Debtors determine, in their discretion, that such payment is necessary to avoid cancellation, default, alteration, assignment, attachment, lapse or any form of impairment to the coverage, benefits or proceeds provided under the Insurance Policies.
4. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to maintain and continue on an uninterrupted basis the Debtors' prepetition practices with respect to the Insurance Policies and the Premium Financing Arrangements, including the payment of the premiums due on the Premium Financing Arrangements, and to enter into new Insurance Policies and Premium Financing Arrangements in the exercise of their business judgment.
5. Pending the entry of a final order, the Debtors are not authorized to make any payments with respect to the Travelers Note. A final hearing will be held on May 20, 2010 at 3:00 p.m. prevailing Eastern time to consider the relief requested by the Debtors' with respect to the Travelers Note. Objections to the Motion, if any, must be filed and served so as to be received by counsel for the Debtors no later than 4:00 p.m. on the day that is seven days prior to the final hearing. In the absence of an objection, the Court may enter the relief requested in the Motion without further notice or a hearing.

6. The Court finds and determines that the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 are satisfied and that the relief requested is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm.

7. Neither the provisions contained herein, nor any actions or payments made by the Debtors pursuant to this Order, shall be deemed an assumption of any executory contract arising out of an existing financing program, agreement, or contract, or otherwise shall constitute a waiver of the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code or an admission by the Debtors that any such financing program, agreement or contract constitutes an executory contract within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

8. Neither the provisions contained herein, nor any actions or payments made by the Debtors pursuant to this Order, shall be deemed an admission as to the validity of the underlying obligations or a waiver of any rights the Debtors may have to subsequently dispute such obligation on any ground that applicable law permits.

9. The Debtors, their officers, employees and agents are authorized to take or refrain from taking such acts as are necessary and appropriate to implement and effectuate the relief granted herein.

10. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any payment made pursuant to this Order shall be subject to any requirements imposed on the Debtors under any order entered by the Court with respect to the use of cash collateral.

11. Notwithstanding the possible applicability of Bankruptcy Rules 6004, the terms and conditions of this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

12. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over any matters arising from or related to the implementation or interpretation of this Order.
