requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors; and after due deliberation, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefore, it is hereby:

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that:

1. This Motion is GRANTED on a Final basis.
2. Except as otherwise set forth herein, all Utility Companies are: (i) prohibited from discontinuing, altering or refusing services to the Debtors on account of the commencement of this Chapter 11 case or any unpaid pre-petition charges; (ii) prohibited from discriminating against the Debtors, or requiring payment of a security deposit or receipt of any other security from the Debtors for continued service, as a result of the Debtors' commencement of this Chapter 11 case or any outstanding pre-petition invoices; and (iii) deemed to have received adequate assurance of payment in compliance with section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code.
3. Within ten (10) business days of the First Day Hearing, the Debtors shall provide a deposit to each Utility Company equal to the value of one-half month of the cost of such Utility Company's average monthly service, as interim adequate assurance.
4. The Utility Companies will be required to return the Adequate Assurance Deposit within the earlier of fifteen (15) days of the effective date of any confirmed plan of reorganization, or the date that the Debtors cease using the services provided by such Utility Company, including upon the closing on a sale of the Debtors' assets.
5. The Adequate Assurance Procedures for determining requests for additional assurance of payment as described in the Motion are approved on a Final basis as follows:
  - (a) Absent any further order of the Court and except as otherwise provided herein, Utility Companies will not be able to alter, refuse or discontinue service to, or discriminate against, the Debtors on account of the commencement of this Chapter 11 case or any unpaid pre-petition charges, and will not be permitted to demand payment of an additional deposit or receipt of other security in connection with any unpaid pre-petition charges;

(b) The Debtors will serve the Final Order via facsimile (if known) and first class mail within three (3) business days after the date that the Final Order is entered by the Court, on each of the Utility Companies identified on Exhibit A attached hereto. In the event that any Utility Company inadvertently has been omitted from Exhibit A, the Debtors, upon discovery of such omission, will file with the Court an amended Exhibit A (the “Amended Exhibit”) adding the name of each inadvertently omitted and subsequently discovered Utility Company (the “Added Utility Companies”), and will promptly serve on each Added Utility Company the Motion, the Amended Exhibit and the Final Order or, if it has been entered, the Final Order (each such service, a “Supplemental Service”) and each Added Utility Company will be subject to the terms of this Order;

(c) Any Utility Company will be able to submit a request for additional assurance of payment (an “Additional Payment Request”) by submitting the request to counsel to the Debtors, Sullivan Hazeltine Allinson LLC, 4 East 8th Street, Suite 400, Wilmington, DE 19801, Attn: William A. Hazeltine, Esq.;

(d) Any Additional Payment Request must be in writing and: (i) set forth the location for which utility services are provided; (ii) include a summary of the Debtors’ payment history relevant to the affected account(s), including any security deposits or other prepayments or assurances previously provided by the Debtors; (iii) describe in sufficient detail the reason(s) why the treatment afforded pursuant to the procedures set forth herein do not constitute satisfactory adequate assurance of payment; and (iv) include a proposal for what treatment would constitute adequate assurance of payment from the Debtors along with an explanation of why such proposal is reasonable;

(e) If a Utility Company makes an Additional Payment Request that the Debtors believe is reasonable, the Debtors will be authorized to comply, in their sole discretion, with such request without further order of the Court;

(f) If the Debtors believe that a Utility Company’s Additional Payment Request is unreasonable, the Debtors shall promptly bring on for hearing at the next regularly scheduled omnibus hearing date a motion, pursuant to section 366(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, seeking a determination from the Court that Proposed Adequate Assurance, plus any additional consideration offered by the Debtors, constitutes adequate assurance of payment (the “Determination Hearing”);

(g) Pending resolution of a Utility Company’s Additional Payment Request at a Determination Hearing, such Utility Company will be prohibited from altering, refusing or discontinuing service to the Debtors or discriminating against the Debtors on account of the commencement of these Chapter 11 cases or any unpaid pre-petition charges; and

(h) Based on the establishment of the Proposed Adequate Assurance, a Utility Company will be deemed to have adequate assurance of payment unless and until a future order of the Court is entered requiring further assurance of payment.

6. Within three (3) business days of entry of this Final Order, the Debtors shall serve this Final Order via facsimile (if known) and first class mail on the Utility Companies and on all other parties required to receive service hereunder.

7. The Debtors are authorized and empowered to take all actions necessary to implement the relief granted in this Final Order.

8. Notwithstanding the relief granted herein and any action taken pursuant hereto, nothing herein shall be deemed: (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors; (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' right to dispute any claim on any grounds; (iii) a promise or requirement to pay any claim; (iv) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined hereunder; (v) a request or authorization to assume any agreement, contract or lease pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (vi) a waiver of the Debtors' rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; or (vii) a finding that any entity is or is not a Utility Company hereunder or under Section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code, whether or not such entity is listed on Exhibit A to the Motion.

9. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Motion or this Order, any payment to be made, or authorization contained hereunder, shall be subject to the requirements imposed on the Debtors under any order regarding the use of cash collateral.

10. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation of this Final Order.
